

2023 GRANTEE ORGANIZATIONS

American Indian Services

Lehi, Utah

“STEM PREP” (Pre-Freshman Engineering Program)

STEM summer program for Native students in AZ, Utah, South Dakota, and Idaho. To prepare students for success in advanced high school studies leading to careers in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics.

Girl Scouts AZ Cactus Pine Council

Phoenix, Arizona

“Navajo Nation STEM Camp”

Summer STEM camp for girls K-12 on the Navajo Nation, hands on STEM learning, outdoor activities, and leadership programming.

Keres Children’s Learning Center

Cochiti Pueblo, New Mexico

“Language Is Power”

Keres language program for primary and elementary students. To strengthen, maintain and revitalize the heritage language of Keres.

Mending Wings

Wapato, Washington

“Dancing Our Prayers”

To support cultural revitalization and retention needs of the Yakama Nation. The program engages both youth and Elders in integrated activities; traditions, spiritual beliefs, singing, drumming, dance and sharing of cultural knowledge.

Native Strength Revolution

Bessemer, Alabama

“Indigenous Leadership Training”

Training to equip Natives to serve as spiritual wellness leaders in their communities.

Nez Perce Joint Session

Lapwai, Idaho

“Technology Support”

Technological support to provide remote services for bible studies, camp meetings, and church services.

Three Precious Miracles

Sacaton, Arizona

“Miracles Paint Night”

For Native children in foster care and their families, to express themselves in a safe place through art and cultural interactions.